Plagiarism Policy:

All submissions must be original, with correct citation of all the sources..Plagiarism, including self-plagiarism, is prohibited.Every contribution is checked for plagiarism.The submission is rejected if plagiarism is found and after notifying the author's institution, the work will not be permitted to be submitted again.Plagiarism is accepted at 10% from all sources and no more than 2% from a single source. When submitting work, authors attest to its originality and assume full responsibility for its content when they submit it. uthor can file an appeal with the program chair. This message aims to increase knowledge of proper citation and academic integrity.